

“Four Stars”

Bella Vineyard's 2006 Dry Creek Valley zinfandel is the winner of the Press Democrat's blind tasting of Dry Creek zins

“... manages to be both hedonistic and elegant. It honors its appellation with a bright fruitiness woven through with raspberry . . . you'll taste black cherry, too, and there's a concentration, a jamminess. Sweet spices—clove, allspice, a suggestion of star anise—add pretty notes, like exclamation points in a prose poem.”

Wine of the Week
—TOP PICK—

“The tastiest of Dry Creek zins”

Food
& Wine

PRESS DEMOCRAT | March 18, 2009

