

2004

Dry Creek Valley zinfandel

variety: 96% zinfandel, 4% petite sirah

appellation: Dry Creek Valley

vintage: 2004

maturation: 15 months, French and American oak barrels

alcohol: 15.1%

This zinfandel blends grapes from several Dry Creek vineyards to create a complex, silky smooth wine. It is a wine that showcases all that makes the Dry Creek Valley special for zinfandel aficionados. It starts off with an earthy, fruity, vibrant bouquet and follows with flavors of dark blackberries, cherries and mocha with a hint of sweet vanilla cream. The finish is smooth and luxurious, leaving you wanting another sip.

Strictly limited production.

Only 435 cases produced.

Bella
vineyards