

2005

Dry Creek Valley zinfandel

variety: 100% zinfandel

appellation: Dry Creek Valley

vintage: 2005

maturation: 15 months in French and American oak alcohol: 14.2%

This wine is made from some of the most select vineyard plots located in the Dry Creek Valley. With its amazing bouquet of wild berries, licorice, crushed violets and sweet vanilla, it explodes with intense fruit flavors of blackberries, ripe raspberries, mocha, jasmine tea, chocolate, leather, anise and cinnamon. The tannins are soft and silky and the finish lingers for several tantalizing moments. This wine is crafted for earlier enjoyment.
