

2005

Lily Hill Estate zinfandel variety: 90% zinfandel, 10% petite sirah

appellation: Dry Creek Valley

vintage: 2005

maturation: 15 months in small French & American oak barrels alcohol: 15.5%

From the ideal vintage comes the ultimate wine. The 2005 vintage was outstanding, and the wines produced will show wonderfully for years to come. The Lily Hill zinfandel is a wine of many layers of intense complexity. The bouquet is bright, ripe, candied fruit and blackberry jam. The flavors cascade on the palate with dark fruit, blackberries, black cherries, raspberries, creamy mocha, chocolate and sweet vanilla, culminating with a long and silky, lingering finish. This wine will age gracefully for 5 to 7 years and can accompany many different foods. Enjoy.

Strictly limited production.

retail: $ 36.00

Bella
vineyards and wine caves