

“remarkably long”

“Bella’s winemaker co-ferments a small fraction of syrah (5 percent) with the zin, which may bring out the wild animal side of the wine. It has a cedary, high note, and ripe, almost peachy fruit. With air the wine takes on a cooler, foresty tone, marked by scents of blueberry, raspberry and rose. The flavors are remarkably long.”

2007 Bella Dry Creek Valley Lily Hill Estate zinfandel | 950 cases

WINE & SPIRITS | FEBRUARY 2009

Year’s BEST
ZINFANDELS

