FRIENDS OF BELLA

Leighann Lindsay! Back in 2016, our little world of Bella got a bit bigger when we opened our stunning 15-acre Ru's Farm near the picturesque town of Healdsburg. With two idyllic cottages, lush vine rows, a lovely 100-year-old barn, an apple orchard, olive trees and a bountiful organic garden, it's a fairytale setting for weddings, special events, or even just an unforgettable getaway. And because we know that sometimes when you're in the country, you'll want to enjoy a little small-town charm, we recently unveiled Ru's Outpost, an exquisite getaway in the heart of Healdsburg, with three beautifully decorated cottages and a private pool.

As the general manager for both, it's my joyful job to ensure that every experience at Ru's Farm or Outpost is extraordinary and unique, and that all of our guests are beyond pampered as they savor the beauty and tranquility of these spectacular settings. If you're searching for a dreamy wine country home away from home, or the perfect setting for that special celebration, look no further. Ru's Farm and Outpost are waiting, and as a club member, your club discount applies to all lodgings. We hope to see you soon!

Until then, we are happy to bring a taste of wine country to your door. Our February add-on is our highly anticipated 2015 Barrel 32 zinfandel. A selection of the "Best of the Best" barrels for the vintage, it's a dazzling wine of incomparable elegance, power and purity—and a must for any collector!

With layers of sweet raspberry, cherry and figs, our luscious and aromatic 2015 Florence Vineyard zinfandel shows why Jack Florence is a legend in the world of zinfandel.

We are also excited to share our 2014 Dry Creek Valley zinfandel. Sourced from a handful of renowned vineyards, including Lily Hill, it offers gorgeous flavors of blackcurrant and sarsaparilla, and will be perfect for the cool spring evenings ahead!
